ANITA FORD'S BEGINNER'S ACRYLIC PAINTING

Updated Beginner's Acrylic Painting Supply List:

Acrylic Paints (Grumbacher Academy Acrylic Paints are recommended but not required).

Titanium White	*Prussian Blue
Cadmium Red Light	*Burnt Sienna
Ultramarine Blue	*Raw Sienna
Cadmium Yellow Medium	*Burnt Umber
Cadmium Yellow Light	*Raw Umber
Alizarin Crimson	*Payne's Gray
Hookers Green	*Naples Yellow
Cerulean Blue
Thalo Blue	Any other colors you would like to bring

NOTE: Colors marked with an asterisk (*) are optional. Most students end up wanting to purchase them to use in their paintings.

Acrylic brushes: Round #2, Filbert #12 and #16, Flat #12, Fan # 2, and any other brushes you would like to bring (including old worn out ones, house-painting brushes, watercolor brushes, etc.)

Small painting/palette knife for mixing paints

Pencil and Eraser

One stick of chalk (white or yellow)

Tissues or paper towels (something to use for quick wipe-ups)

Plastic container for water

Pallette or surface to use for a pallette

Four canvases or canvas boards 9"x12" (Canvases up to 16"x 20" are fine, just be aware that the larger the canvas, the more time and paint will be involved for completion of the paintings)

Two or three sheets watercolor paper (white, cold press, 90 lb or heavier)