

OIL PAINTERS OF AMERICA

2021 NATIONAL SALON SHOW | JUNE 10 THROUGH AUGUST 7

AT THE QUINLAN VISUAL ARTS CENTER

DANIEL DU

Daniel Du is an artist based in Vancouver, BC. Daniel got his BFA at the University of Texas and has continued to develop his technique and craft at the Arts Students League of New York as well as completing an atelier program at the Sumpter Academy of Art in Portland. With stints in Texas, New York, and Oregon, Daniel has shown his work around the country with various organizations and artist collectives. Currently pursuing graduate studies in Vancouver, Daniel is interested in how different cultures and contexts affect people's perspectives and outlooks on the world. His paintings highlight snapshots of life from these different vantage points while exploring the commonalities of the human experience.
