

OIL PAINTERS OF AMERICA

2021 NATIONAL SALON SHOW | JUNE 10 THROUGH AUGUST 7

AT THE QUINLAN VISUAL ARTS CENTER

KATHERINE GROSSFELD

Katherine Grossfeld received her Master of Fine Arts Degree and Post-Baccalaureate Certificate from The School of the Art Institute of Chicago and her Bachelor of Fine Arts Degree from The University of Denver, with studies at Studio Art Centers International, Florence, Italy.

Grossfeld taught Life Drawing to undergraduates at The School of the Art Institute of Chicago and served there on critique panels.

Twice, Grossfeld's work has been published in the periodical New American Paintings. Her work was included in a regional survey of contemporary still life organized by Columbus College of Art & Design, entitled The Object Considered: Contemporary Still Life in Ohio, Illinois and Indiana. She was featured in the 2005 book Living Artists by Crow Woods Publishing, Chicago. A short story anthology Visions of Life 2, released in 2020, featured one of her paintings as inspiration for a story.

Grossfeld has been the recipient of a Regional Artist Project Grant from the United Arts Council of Raleigh, and an Art Appreciation Grant from Nippon Steel USA. She has received the Jurors Choice award in Maryland Federation of Art's Small Wonders exhibit, and Honorable Mention award in their Winter Members Show. Grossfeld has served several times as a guest lecturer. She has been interviewed on zoom and on television. Her work has been reviewed in newspapers in Illinois and North Carolina.

Katherine Grossfeld exhibits nationally and internationally. Her work is held in many private collections. She lives in North Carolina.
