FINE ART AUCTION

Cindy Fulks

Cindy Fulks is a representational artist who loves to capture glimpses of life that we all love. She loves the presence of sunlight and dramatic shadows that together create an exciting story to tell. Cindy finds inspiration in each new day and enjoys the lifelong journey for excellence in the world of painting.

Cindy grew up in Virginia in an artistic family. She holds degrees in Business Administration and Business Education. She taught Business and Law before entering a long career in Real Estate sales.

Today she spends all her time at her studio and gallery called "Studio 114" in downtown LaGrange, Georgia, next to the LaGrange Art Museum.

Cindy has studied with gifted artists: James Richards, Joanne Williams Walker, Anne Blair Brown, Nancy Franks, Jenny Barber, Patrick Saunders and Cora Waterhouse.
