

Making oil Paint – Mary Frances Hull

Tuesday 5:30-7:30 January 10 2012 $50.00

Using traditional methods each student will make a set of paints to keep and use. Each tube will be of a single pigment. The number of students will determine the range of colors taken home. Supply list available on website.

Student Supply List

Long semi firm palette knife
A piece of glass to mix on 11x14 min
A glass Muller or Mortar and Pestle
Paper towels
Palette scraper
Face mask
Rubber or safety gloves

Extra supply fee includes $30.00

Pigments
Cold pressed linseed oil
Empty paint tubes for storing

5 students or more

