

OIL PAINTERS OF AMERICA

2021 NATIONAL SALON SHOW | JUNE 10 THROUGH AUGUST 7

AT THE QUINLAN VISUAL ARTS CENTER

LARRY SEILER

Larry Seiler Painting professionally from 1979 forward ...first seventeen years exclusively wildlife art, represented, winning various state and regional award recognition, painting and woodcarving. Followed up by an urgency to take paints outdoors set up on location, or plein air, favoring oils, acrylics and gouache. Traveled and taught numerous plein air workshops. Painted in the Peninsula Art School Door County Plein Air Invitational two different years. Retired seven years now from instructing art in physical classroom setting. In addition to plein air and plein air events, holds value in painting outdoor studies for producing larger studio works. Resides in NE Wisconsin, Laona.

Awards

In 1984 Larry was awarded Wisconsin's Wildlife Artist of the Year in statewide competition and finished as runner-up two additional years. 1998 would be his last year winning a State stamp competition, the Wisconsin Inland Trout Stamp. Plein air events- Artist Choice- 2012 Cedarburg Plein Air, Second Place- 2017 Grand Marais Plein Air, Artist Choice- 2018 American Impressionist Society National, Finalist Boldbrush 2018

Associations

Signature member- International Plein Air Painter's IPAP; Signature member American Impressionist Society; Associate member Oil Painters of America, Associate member Oil Painters of Minnesota, Signature member Wabeno Arts Guild

Representation

Moondeer and Friends Gallery, Boulder Junction, Wisconsin; Big Easel Gallery, Wabeno, Wisconsin

Significant Notes of Interest

Original staff member of wetcanvas.com, creating and moderating eight forums of this growing international artist's community for nearly 13 years. Taught online workshops for Artist Network University thru F&W Publications. Has written an e-book and other instructional materials, and produced two DVDs on painting for North Light Shop Books.