RULES AND REGULATIONS

Image Requirements

All entries will be juried from digital images by email to info@quinlanartscenter.org. Hard copies of photographs will not be accepted.

Artwork requirements:

Each artist may enter up to two pieces of original artwork that is theme-relevant. The exhibitions committee reserves the right to choose not to display any piece of artwork presented. Entries must be original in concept, composition and execution. Artwork must not be copied, in part or wholly, from any published or copyrighted work.

Media Release

The Quinlan reserves the right to photograph artwork for publicity purposes and for reproduction in relevant publications and the website without additional compensation.

Sale of Artwork

It is preferable that exhibited works be for sale. Prices listed on the entry form are binding. Artist may NOT alter the listed price on accepted works. Artist commission for this show shall be 55%. The Quinlan will retain 35% and 10% shall be given to the Humane Society of Northeast Georgia.

Binding Contract

All information on the original entry must remain the same on the accepted entry. Art substitutions are not permitted. This application for entry is a binding contract. All accepted works are expected to appear in the show at the listed price entered on application.

Art Preparation and Shipping

All two-dimensional pieces must be ready to hang, wired, framed or gallery-wrapped. Saw tooth is unacceptable. Accepted artists must make the necessary arrangements for the shipment of all artworks both to and from the Quinlan and are solely responsible for allowing adequate shipping time. The Quinlan shall not be held liable for damages of any kind which may occur while work is in transit and is not responsible for artwork storage. Early removal of artwork is prohibited. Any artwork that is unclaimed will become the property of the Quinlan 30 days after the date of exhibition closing.
