

Autumn F. Strickland's Bio

Autumn studied Art and Interior Design at the University of Georgia and has art featured in the collection of Governor and Mrs. Nathan Deal, Vince and Barbara Dooley, Senator Frank Ginn, St. Mary's Hospital, and many other southern homes and businesses.

She is the in-house artist for the Currahee Country Club, in Toccoa and at the Glen-Ella Springs Inn and Restaurant on Lake Rabun. Autumn teaches art workshops spring and fall in her studio in Danielsville and at her mountain home in Sautee.

Her art has graced the cover of Southern Distinction Magazine, featured in many other magazines and news publications. She has shown in Highlands North Carolina, St. Simon's Island, and many more art centers and galleries in the southern states. Autumn's art has furnished Southern Living Homes in both Georgia and South Carolina. She is truly honored to display her art at the Quinlan Fine Art Center.
