FINE ART AUCTION

MARCH 2 - 5, 2022

PARTICIPATING ARTIST

DAWNE RAULET

Stockbroker turned artist, Dawne Raulet stumbled into painting when she least expected it. Frazzled by a fulltime financial career, with two babies at home and in need of a quick break, Dawne attended a watercolor workshop. “Afterwards, I realized that for an entire two hour period I had been completely focused on the peaceful waterfall we were painting...and nothing else! It was then that art became my sanctuary and I’ve been obsessed with painting ever since.”

Dawne’s current body of work is made up of mixed media. Acrylic, wax, photography and other ingredients all harmonize beautifully on the panels she paints. Her graceful treatment of horses, sheep, birds and cows elevates these humble creatures to elegant and mesmerizing heights.

Dawne also enjoys painting abstract landscapes, flora and fauna and even flirty, stylized dresses.
