PARTICIPATING ARTIST

DEB ROSENBURY

Deb Rosenbury grew up in Northern Indiana, where from an early age, was always creating. After high school, Deb took interior design classes at Indiana University, eventually having her own interior design business and home store. When her husband's job took them to Atlanta, GA, Deb began creating charming handcrafted items for local stores. Eventually moving into a studio at Urban Art Collective, Deb became inspired to try painting. It totally consumed her and there was no turning back. Her work can be seen at Markay Art Gallery, Marietta, GA, Newbill Collection by the Sea, Seaside, FL, Gilchrist Gilchrist, Nashville, TN and Unrban Art Collective.
