FINE ART AUCTION

Julie Torres

Julie Miller Torres is a fine artist working primarily in the printmaking medium. She is best known for her woven screenprint pieces. She was born in Boise, Idaho, and raised in Tallahassee, Florida.

Torres received her Bachelor of Arts and Juris Doctor from the University of Florida, her Master of Law from the University of Miami, and most recently, her Bachelor of Fine Arts in Printmaking from the Savannah College of Art and Design ("SCAD").

At its heart, Torres' artwork explores and celebrates the ideals of freedom, equality and empowerment. Her work is in the permanent collection of The Metropolitan Museum of Art as well as Delta Airlines, SCAD, the Ritz Carlton, JW Marriott, Norwegian Cruise Lines, and the Jordan Schnitzer Family Foundation.

Torres is represented by Maune Contemporary (Atlanta, GA; Santa Barbara, CA) and Contessa Gallery (Cleveland, OH; Palm Beach, FL). She lives with her family in Atlanta, Georgia.
