FINE ART AUCTION

MARCH 2 - 5, 2022

PARTICIPATING ARTIST

LAURA DAVIS SHANKER

I am a representational/impressionistic painter working mostly with oils. I explore the arrangement of darks and lights and the mood of the subject. I am inspired by the outdoors, so gravitate toward landscapes, especially the Low Country. Architecture, and how it interacts with the landscape, is also a favorite subject.

Although I have lived in California and the UK, most of my life has been spent in Atlanta, GA. I studied at the University of Georgia and began my career in business. Soon after college, I began pursuing my interest in art, studying the classical principles of drawing and painting with Chris Didomizio. I continue to paint as I raised three children, studying with several contemporary artists. For several years, I owned and operated the Art School of Sandy Springs, where I offered workshops with artists such as Qiang Huang, Derek Penix and Maggie Siner. In 2019, I began painting full-time.
