

NANCY RACE

BIOGRAPHY

Nancy was introduced to painting through a casual art class with friends. As an interior designer, the study of color came naturally to her, but she was astonished by how much she loved abstract art and could not get enough of it!

Nancy studied at the Art Student's League and the National Academy of Art in New York City. She has worked with several artists, including Cat Tesla, Julie Schumer, Adele Sypesteyn, and Nicholas Wilton, in his Art2Life Academy and Creative Visionary Program. She looks forward to her workshop in Santa Fe with Gordon Studer in May 2024.

Steller's Gallery and Missy's Art & Pieces in Jacksonville, FL, as well as Market Place Interiors in Nashville and Joan Anderson Interiors in Cashiers, NC, represent Nancy. She paints at the Urban Art Collective in Chamblee, GA, and participates in three shows annually. She had a one-woman show at the Madison Artist's Guild in August/September 2023 and will be participating in a group show at the Quinlan Visual Arts Center in the summer of 2024. Her collectors include individuals and corporations nationwide. Nancy also serves on The Bascom: Center for the Visual Arts board of directors.

Nancy shares her time between Atlanta and her family farm in Cashiers, NC.

ARTIST STATEMENT

Celebrating the colors, shapes and movement of God's creation inspires me to paint. Using an intuitive process, I relish the freedom to create with abandon through vigorous mark making and vivid, abundant color.

Mixed media, collages, and random hardware store implements are my "tools of the trade" to create pieces that are either organic or geometric in nature but always colorful!

Journey with me and my art as we explore the hope of joy, beauty, and wonder in all creation.
