Parrish Hoag is an abstract artist living in North Georgia with her husband Chris and daughter Adair. She was born and raised in Gainesville, GA and graduated from Georgia Tech, and recently returned to her hometown. Parrish enjoys painting daily in her home studio with her newborn and goldendoodle by her side. She creates fine art paintings inspired by blooming botanicals and refreshing, landscape views. She uses acrylic paint, pastel, and charcoal to create her mixed media pieces. Parrish's goal is for viewers to feel freedom and refreshment through her work. It is a joy & honor for Parrish to create artwork that is enjoyed for years to come.

Parrish's works are currently represented by: • Caroline Nix Gallery, Gainesville, GA • Joan Anderson Interiors, Cashiers, NC • Old Edwards Inn (Acorns Boutique), Highlands, NC • The Bascom, Highlands, NC • The Scouted Studio, Charleston, SC • The Collective Dallas, Dallas, TX
