

Rhoda's Artist Bio

Rhoda is an award winning artist working in pencil, pastel, charcoal, acrylic, oil, and watercolor. She is known for her realistic and impressionistic portrait, still life, landscapes, and botanical illustrations. Her many awards have included a Silver Medal at the National Art League Member's Exhibition, first place at the New Rochelle Art Association's Annual Show, first place at the Flushing Artists Exhibition, first place at the Floral Park Art League Annual Show, first place at the Babylon Citizen's Council on the Arts Annual Show. Her work has been included in group art exhibitions at the Art Student's League of New York, Schwartz Memorial Library of CW Post University, Port Washington Public Library, Stony Brook University Charles Wang Center, and the Taipei Cultural Center Art Gallery. She has served on the fine arts faculty of Bluefield State College, Marshall University, National Art League, and the professional education program at Virginia Tech University.

She is currently a member of Athens Art Association, Athens Plein Air Painter's Group, and Tri-State Arts Association.

She did her undergraduate work at the School of Visual Art and earned a Master's degree in Studio Art at the College of New Rochelle.